

SUPPORTING LOCAL BUSINESS

During the Coronavirus pandemic, many of our local business are staying open to serve the members of our community. We ask that you patronize these business owners as we move forward through these difficult times. This short page is meant to be used as a 'cheat sheet' on what businesses are ready to serve you. This list is by no means complete and we encourage our citizens to contact us for corrections or additions to this document. Since this situation changes on almost an hourly basis, we will be updating or listing until this crisis is over. Please contact admin@scottdaleonline.com with any corrections, questions, or additions.

Please call these business before you venture out and about. Call to verify their current hours of operation and services available. Stay safe!
